Day2 – Excursion to Mt.

Jungfrauoch |

After breakfast, embark on the excursion to visit Jungfrauoch, which is often referred to as the top of Europe, and the charming town of Interlaken. Jungfrauoch makes for a memorable encounter with snow and ice, and has all it takes to become the 'high point' of any tour of Europe. Tourists are often amazed at the scenic splendour they witness from the 'Cog-Wheel' train, which climbs up to a height of 11,333 feet to reach Jungfrauoch, the highest railway station in the world! The Cog-Wheel train is one of the best, most incredible train journeys in the world. The views of Switzerland from top of the mountain are amazingly panoramic and breathtaking. Later on, drive to Interlaken, which is a world famous Swiss town located in the Bernese Oberland Mountains between the lakes of Thun and Brienz. Enjoy a comfortable overnight stay at the hotel in Interlaken. Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4 – Excursion to Matterhorn Glacier Paradise

After breakfast, embark on the excursion to visit the Matterhorn Glacier Paradise. The highest altitude mountain railway station in Europe with a new restaurant in the Minergie-P standard sets standards for sustainability. The panoramic view includes a breathtaking view of Italian, French and Swiss Alpine giants from an altitude of 3,883 metres. This is your starting point for a 2.5 hour hike across the glacier to climb first 4,000 metres mountain, the Breithorn. Do you think you can see the Mediterranean? Quite possible. Mont Blanc, the highest mountain in the Alps, seems near enough to touch. You are almost in an Italian territory and can see the enchanting rear face of Lady Matterhorn – you certainly hadn't expected that. The air is thin so don't try to do anything too quickly. You are also at the peak of the international ski area. Beneath you lies the largest summer ski area in Europe and, not far away, a cool Gravity Park for snowboarders and free skiers, open 300 days a year. You can then visit the newly renovated Glacier Palace simply cool. The cable cars and aerial tramways linking Zermatt and Matterhorn glacier paradise are now equipped with an audio system. Enjoy a comfortable overnight stay at the hotel in Zermatt. Meals: Breakfast
